Hi, Jane. How are you?

I hear you will come to Japan this winter vacation, so I made a plan for our New Year's Day.

First, let's have osechi.

It is a special new year's dish in Japan.

I hope you will like it.

Next, let's go to a shrine. We can pray for New Year's luck there. After praying, let's get a paper fortune.

I hope to get a good one.

Then, I want to go shopping with you.

We can buy a grab bag there.

They have many great things in them, but there will be shishimai at three o'clock at the shrine.

Shishimai is a traditional dance. The shrine is famous for it. Let's watch it before we go shopping.

I'm looking forward to it.

See you soon. Takeshi
